

Versaic Grants was a standout among the more than twenty grants management software companies evaluated by Idealware for the Grants Managers Network. Versaic received a solid or advanced rating in each area evaluated, a first for a new vendor participant in the guide.

Companies are switching to Versaic Grants to save time, make better decisions and increase their impact.

Described as a “highly flexible platform,” Versaic is shaking things up with an easily configurable solution that provides exactly the capabilities that client needs at a significantly lower cost than many of the other solutions. Versaic’s lifecycle approach to grants management enables clients to not only seamlessly manage their grant portfolios but also scale their programs and measure the full impact of their giving.
